Commonwealth vs. Gottlieb Beck vs. Philip Brackheimer, peace warrant; keep the peace towards each other for six months. Gave bail.

REBELS.

We learn by last night's train from Lexington, that the accident on the Lexington & Covington railroad, was caused certainly by the secession of Harrison county. The road-bed was torn up for a distance of about five rods; and while some of the parties on the train were taking care of the dead, some others started back to warn a train behind them. This party was fired on by bushwhackers, but fortunately no one was hurt.

REBELS.

The rebels of Harrison county, and, in fact, every other county in the State, will have to be annihilated; to show them any mercy is to commit wholesale murder on the public. If these seceders can be caught let them be instantly hung.

ATTEMPT AT BURGLARY.

Since the recent law passed prohibiting persons from selling fire-arms in this city, some people will have them, by fair or foul means, no matter what. Wednesday night some rascals attempted to break into the gunsmith establishment of Messrs. Dickson & Gilmore, on Third street, between Main and Market. They did not succeed, however, in robbing the premises. We guess the fire-arms made by Messrs. D. & G. were not made to go off in that way.

WELL DONE.

We understand that Capt. Myers only takes ten men of having a full company. We are glad that Capt. M. has been so successful. This is a fine company, and will have good officers. Here's your chance, officer to-day—tomorrow will be too late. Officer corner of Second and Jefferson streets.

Capt. Betty wishes a few more men for his company, in Col. Woodruff's regiment.

Like Sheppard, Esq., whom everybody knows, is the First Lieutenant. Office opposite the jail. Go, and enlist boys, this is a fine chance.

THE FOLLOWING PERSONS WERE RELEASED FROM THE MILITARY PRISON, YESTERDAY:

W. G. Orsley, oath and bond, $2,000; J. W. Gibson, oath and bond, $5,000; G. W. Tidwell, oath; H. B. Ballinger, oath.

OUT OF ORDER.

The pump at the corner of Third and Broadway is constantly out of order. The citizens in that vicinity would like to have it attended to.

Lieut. Col. Nell, of the 24 Kentucky infantry, and Capt. Davis, of the 24 Kentucky cavalry, arrived in Washington on the 20th.

CORRECTION.

The W. A. Traylor who was in the military prison day before yesterday, is not Mr. W. A. Traylor of this city.

There are some articles of value, perhaps, at the Police Office for Lizzie Birch. If he is in the city she will please call.

Thanks to the messengers of the Adams Express Company, for the latest papers.

R. M. Samuels and John Boone were incarcerated in the military prison yesterday.

Capture of Clarksville—Diagnosis and Treatment.

Our dispatches this morning state that Col. Mason, of the Seventy-first Ohio regiment, with two hundred and ninety men, behind intrenchments, surrendered the town to less than six hundred guerrillas without firing a gun, and that after the surrender, Col. Mason and Woodard, the guerrilla leader, got into a specification, greatly complimentary to each other. The history of the war cannot show anything so disgraceful, so outrageous, so iniquitous, so devilish. Col. Mason and the Seventy-first Ohio, if we remember aright, were repudiated by Gen. Sherman for their cowardly conduct at the battle of Shiloh. The specifying part of this last affair looks wonderfully like a cut-and-dried transaction; and it was the general talk in the city last night, that negotiations have been on foot for some weeks for the surrender of that point. If this affair proves as black as it looks, we trust Col. Mason will be punished to the utmost extent of the law. What a contrast to the brilliant fight by Capt. Atkinson, of the Fifth Indiana, with a squad of only twenty men, behind stockades, whipping Morgan and all his gang!

MARY INSTITUTE.

MARY INSTITUTE.—Prof. S. G. Mullins, the principal of this female institution, with his family, have arrived in our city to become permanently located among us. We are happy to greet him and his interesting family, and extend to them a cordial welcome.

OUR CITY NEEDS SUCH AN INSTITUTION AS THE "MARY INSTITUTE."

Prof. Mullins, and such a teacher as Prof. Mullins.

MISS CALLE NEVILLE, a young lady of superior attainments, and an experience of seven years in teaching, has accepted the appointment of First Assistant Teacher.

She is well known in Illinois, Missouri, and Kentucky, as a teacher of the first order, and will add influence to any school with which she is connected.

Prof. E. W. Gunter, of this city, has consented to fill the Chair of Instrumental Music.

He is one of the most thoroughly educated musicians and successful teachers in the valley of the Mississippi. The unquestioned loyalty of all the teachers, their success hitherto, with the urbane, gentlemanly deportment of the distinguished principal, must make the "Mary Institute" one of the best female schools in the State. See advertisement.

GREEN RIVER REGIMENT.—We announced yesterday, that the Military Board had authorized a regiment of infantry, for three years, to be raised in the counties of Hart, Edmonson, Grayson, Hardin, Larnie, Green, Barren, Metcalfe, &c., by Judge K. Jameson, of Hart county. The Judge is a gallant gentleman, a high-minded, chivalric Kentuckian, around whom the people will delight to rally in defense of their country. We do not know where he will establish his headquarters—suffice it to say, he will soon be ready and in the field, and his headquarters will then be where duty calls.

Capt. Lee, who is filling up a company for Judge Jameson's regiment, has established his quarters at Bacon Creek.

Those who wish to go with Capt. L. will report at once to him.

Let the young men of these counties rush to the standard of their country.

The war will continue until the last vestige of treason is crushed out, and now that the Government has gone earnestly to work, we trust the young men of Kentucky will fall in ranks promptly, and not subject themselves or Kentucky to the draft which has been ordered in case any State fails to furnish its quota.

HORSE THIEF ARRESTED.—A correspondent at Stamping Ground, Ky., writing on the 20th, states that on the previous night, a young man named Gilbert was arrested by the local authorities for horse stealing.

When Morgan was in Georgetown this young fellow gave out that he was one of Morgan's men, and took Alvin. Brooking's horse, and he said, by authority of one of the Captains of the gang. Other horses have been mysteriously disappeared, and it is believed this is the thief. It is thought that others are engaged in the same business. He has gone up to await his trial at the next term of the circuit court. He is a native of Fayette county, Ky.

FLAG OF THE SIXTY-SIXTH.—On behalf of the ladies of New Albany, Col. Tuley, on Tuesday evening, presented Gen. Wallace, a beautiful flag for the Sixty-sixth regiment. On account of the hurry and confusion, no speeches were made, but Gen. Wallace promised to discharge the trust reposed in him. The flag is a very handsome one, and reflects great credit on the taste and skill of the ladies by whom it was made—Mrs. James Hughes and Miss Lizzie Eninger.

ACCIDENT.—The New Albany Ledger learns from a gentleman from Mount City, that while some workmen were engaged in picking out the old charge from some shells in the foundry there, one of the shells exploded, communicating fire to other shells and a box of powder, which also exploded, wounding four men, three of them seriously. One died the same night. The accident is said to have been caused by carelessness.

A few more men are required to fill Col. Jacob's Ninth Kentucky cavalry, for twelve months' service.

All who wish to enlist in this branch of the service must come forward at once. Capt. Harney will be at the Democrat's Office, to-day, to receive all who desire to join. Young men, under twenty-one years of age, must have the written consent of their parents, in order to be mustered into the service.

KILLED.—Wm. Phillips, a brakeman on the Valley road, was accidentally killed about 5 o'clock Tuesday evening, at Huntington, Ind. The unfortunate man was standing on the top of one of the freight cars, when the train started, and being thrown between the cars he was instantly killed.

Judge A. Boyd, who left Newport, Kentucky, some few months ago, in search of his "rights," returned to that place a few days since, and was arrested by the Provost Marshal. He will be sent to Camp Chase.

The enrollment of Knox county, Indiana, shows the number of the militia to be 2,569, and that 1,134 have volunteered. This does not include several companies now being organized. Hurrah for Indiana!

SUSPENDED.—The daily Terre Haute (Ind.) Journal has been suspended on account of not having a sufficient support. The weekly will be issued as usual.

GOOD FOR THE PARSON.—It is said that Parson Brown's copy-right on his book, amounting to $17,000 in sixty days, and that Various Situations at Cumberland Gap.

It is down to-night to break the alliance that has long existed between us, under circumstances of the most intense anxiety. The public here has no greater favorite than Miss Schenck, nor one more deserving. Her recent illness adds to the sympathy of her friends, and will surely add to the testimony intended for her to-night. The habits of the theater need only to be told that in the occasion of her benefit, and we advise visitors to the city who can enjoy alike a fine audience and a fine acting, not to fail to be present to-night.

The New Albany Ledger, of last evening, tells a very improbable story, by Lieut. Wallace, of his capture of Clarksville, Tenn., by a body of guerrillas, and his recapture of it with the aid of forty sergeants.

How Lieut. Wallace could leave Clarksville Wednesday night and be in New Albany at noon yesterday is rather ahead of any time-table we have seen. The rest of his story is about as probable as his rapid traveling from Clarksville to New Albany.

Meeting of the Council.—Both Boards of the City Council met last night. As usual there was nothing of importance transacted; a few street resolutions were offered. The nigger question was "laid over."

Mrs. Donne was elected the keeper of the Marine Hospital; Geo. Jones was duly elected Interpreter of the City Court—both good appointments. They adjourned to meet on next Thursday night week.

RALLY! RALLY! $40 BOUNTY.—Wanted for the cavalry service, in the Eighth Kentucky Cavalry, Col. D. J. Hallisey, one hundred men immediately for the company, in command of Capt. Thos. J. McMane. Re-enlisting office, Neville's stable, on Market, between Second and Third streets, south side.

T. J. McMANE, Capt.

Bravo for Hoosier.—The Seventy-third Indiana volunteer regiment passed our office noon yesterday, including company with a flag bearing the device of "Tee-gard Guards." They are indeed a splendid body of men—a regiment that Uncle Sam may well be proud of.

"Old Hoosier's heart is in the cause, and his hands will help sustain his law."

Attention is called to the condition of the pump on the corner of Third and York streets.

The well wants cleaning and the curbing repairing. It has been out of order for some weeks and is a serious inconvenience to the neighborhood.

Capt. Metcalfe wants a few more men to fill up his company.

Those who intend to volunteer and escape the draft, would do well to call at his quarters on Market street, south side, between Sixth and Seventh.

ORDER NO. 12.—We call the attention of citizens, officers of steamboats, and railroad lines, and proprietors of stage coaches to Gen. Boyle's order No. 12.

GEN. NELSON.—This energetic commander left Nashville yesterday for this city, stopping last night at Bowlinggreen. He will arrive this afternoon.

The steamer Chancellor has arrived at St. Louis from Helena, and reports that the gunboats and rams were to leave on the 14th for Helena.

Noble Butler's school, Fourth street, between Walnut and Chestnut, will be open Monday, September 8th.

Clarksville was not captured by the guerrillas, but was surrendered to them by a coward or a traitor, or both.

We call the attention of readers to the General Order No. 3, in relation to selling arms in the city.

Thanks to our genial friend Joe Short, Esq., for favors. Joe is a trump of the first water.

The following reached us through the mail yesterday. We place it in our columns, so as to give it general publicity:

TO ARMS.—A meeting of the citizens of Bardonia was called at the courthouse on Wednesday, the 20th inst., to take into consideration measures necessary for the safety and protection of the people at large, against the marauding parties, regardless of all parties.

Judge Linthicum was called to the chair, and Geo. W. Hite elected a secretary—whereupon, a committee, consisting of two citizens, irrespective of party, from each precinct in the county, was appointed to make resolutions preparatory for a meeting of the citizens of the county, to be held at the courthouse, in Bardonia, on the 25th of August, 1862.

The committee will meet on Saturday, August 24th, at Bardonia, to consult together and prepare the necessary resolutions for the meeting on the 25th.

The people of the county are respectfully requested to attend on the 25th inst.

The committee appointed to draft resolutions, are as follows, to-wit: Wm. R. Grigsby, D. S. Slaughter, J. W. Muir, J. W. Gore, S. Humphrey, Basil Avis, W. A. Roberts, James Woods, W. S. Houchens, E. M. May, Ed. Duncan, Ed. Gardner, Thos. Bryant, G. W. Forman, Elisha Manke, T. W. Samuels, Thos. Conn, Dr. Stron, Henry Harned, G. W. Hite, Joseph Hart, Bardonia, Ky., August 20th, 1862.

GEN. WRIGHT.—Gen. H. G. Wright, assigned to the command of the Department of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, is a Major of Engineers in the regular service. He is a native of Connecticut, a graduate of West Point, has been in the service since 1841, and was made a Brigadier General in September, 1861. After his promotion he served at Hilton Head. Since his appointment as Brigadier General he has been much engaged in the construction of fortifications, among which are those at the Tortugas and several other points on the Southern coast. He was senior Brigadier under Port Royal Sherman in the South Carolina expedition, and is said to have been very popular with his command.

Gen. Wright has the reputation of being a prompt, sensible and energetic officer.

The New Orleans Picayune, of the 7th inst., says that John C. Breckinridge lost an arm by a cannon shot in the fight at Baton Rouge.

That was an extraordinary shot. A few more such as that would soon put an end to this rebellion.

We find the following in the Cincinnati Commercial of the 21st inst.:

A regiment of Louisiana cavalry was attacked and defeated on Monday, near London, Kentucky, by Col. Garrard, with a force of seven hundred men. He succeeded in splitting the regiment, whereupon the rebels scattered.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed proposals will be received at 12 o'clock, on Friday, August 23, 1862, at the City Engineer's Office, for completing the following work:

Grading and paving the sidewalks on the South side of Madison, from Preston to Jackson street.

Specification on file in said office; usual security required. J. M. Delp, Mayor.
